If Nixon were to speak to Russian people —; while Pres Nixon is in Europe for wk, it would be helpful if he delivered heart-to-heart talk to Russian people; speech would doubtless have to be couched in diplomatic phrases but could reflect public opinion in U S today, Mr 3 p 88
Is treason permissible as merely "free speech"? recent Supreme Ct decision tells world that we permit students in public schools to indicate, in effect, that they are "adhering to enemies" of U S, "giving them aid, comfort"; this is symbolic "treason," Mr 10 p 108
Unlawful seizure; college or univ bldgs cannot be lawfully regarded as property of students; they have been reading about labor unions calling strike, virtually taking over private property; illegal seizures of private property are forbidden, laws of trespass can be invoked, Mr 17 p 108
Soviet intrigue; reprinted from issue of June 24, 1968; treaties are being signed by U S with Soviet Union, but Russia is engaged in "proliferation" of trouble for U S in Vietnam, West Berlin, Middle East; without sincerity, confidence among nations, treaties serve only as instruments for Soviet troublemaking, intrigue, Mr 24 p 100
It takes too much time to make change; although Pres Nixon was inaugurated two mos ago, his Admin is still feeling its way in trying to learn ins, outs of govt problems; it takes too much time now to train mbrs of new Admin, Mr 31 p 92
Farewell to 'faithful servant'; reprint of January 23, 1961 editorial; Dwight David Eisenhower endeavored to maintain peace, was true leader; he considered what was best for Amer, then applied talents of common sense, honesty, Ap 7 p 96

Untouchable "conglomerate"; charges are being made that mergers of large corps into "conglomerates" can stifle competition, create monopolies; but why should labor-union "conglomerates" have been allowed to build monopolies that are plainly injurious to competition? Ap 14 p 108
Politican-appeaser "complex"; we have heard good deal lately about "military-indus complex," but what shall we say about politicans, appeasers who favor course which they may not realize could result in weakening of our defense apparatus in nuclear age, Ap 21 p 108
Will to fight for survival; we can deter nuclear war if we show that we are willing to fight; we should be ready to meet any move of Communists which seeks to test our firmness, courage; adequate defense may be expensive, but we have no other choice than to protect ourselves, Ap 28 p 100
Reason can save us; through centuries of past, defiance of authority, rebellions, revolutions, abuses of power by ruling groups have kept many nations in state of unrest, apprehension; but process of reason has averted many wars, settled peaceably disputes within our own country, "Power, Morality" by P Sorokin, W Lunden emphasizes sense of morality as greatest need of community, My 5 p 94
Gambling with security of Amer people; one of most discouraging developments observed today is opposition to President's plan to strengthen our antiballistic-missile system; U S should take no chances, must protect itself against potential aggressors, My 12 p 100
"Good behavior" of judges—who defines it? reprint of July 5, 1957, editorial; Const provides not "life tenure" for Supreme Ct Justices but "during good behavior"; Cong can by law provide method of determining whether official conduct of Justices complies with meaning of "good behavior", can also regulate appellate jurisdiction of Ct, My 19 p 116, 115
Must we stand alone? our efforts to end Vietnam war, make lasting peace cannot succeed unless world opinion is mobilized; we deserve moral support of free govts, peoples everywhere; time has come for world alliance which can bring peace to mankind, My 26 p 100
"New" Supreme Ct? Judge Warren E Burger, selected by Pres to be Chief Justice, will not be able by himself to restore original doctrines of Const; Amer people must insist that Supreme Ct has authority only to "interpret," not rewrite, Const, Je 2 p 96
"Concerned citizen" speaks about Amer's turmoil; full text of speech by James L Robertson, Vice chrmn of Bd of Govs of Fed Reserve System, discussing in penetrating way disturbances, disorders, threats of revolution in Amer, Je 9 p 96, 94-95
Road to third world war; reprint of October 9, 1967, editorial; many signs are appearing on intl horizon which are reminiscent of what happened before outbreak of W W II; way to prevent third world war is to stand firmly for principles we have sought to defend in Vietnam; appeasement never pays, Je 16 p 96
What can I do? reprint of February 8, 1952, editorial; answer to citizen's question is to keep informed on issues, express views, vote; Amer has been, is governed in major policies by wishes of people, Je 23 p 104
Unanswered questions in Powell case; Supreme Ct has rendered opinion that House of Reps did not "expel" Adam Clayton Powell but improperly "excluded" him; what image of Cong will people have if mbrs can divert public funds for their personal use, yet retain their seats? Je 30 p 88
